Rare champagne moment on Cornwall beach

Backpacking tourists will get a rare opportunity to combine sun, sand and sea with champagne on a budget in Cornwall, UK this September.

The Veuve Clicquot Polo on the Beach will see Watergate bay transformed from humble kite and windsurfing getaway to arena-style polo venue for an evening.

Some 20 ponies and their riders will take to the sand in what is expected to be as much a surprise for the animals as for the spectators and press.

Organisers, including Miles Kevin, partner at sponsor's Knight Frank, are looking forward to the event's 2007 success.

He said: "Watergate Bay is a stunning location.

"It is unique events like this, combined with the region's reputation as the surf capital of the UK, and restaurants such as the Jamie Oliver-inspired Fifteen Cornwall, that help to continue to grow popularity of the area."

This year's event will take place on September 9th and will be accompanied by a seafood and champagne bar from 6pm.
